Dear parents:

It is about that time when school is in full swing and the students should be busy working. I wanted to take some time to remind you of the school's late homework policy. If your student does not turn the work in at the time it is due, then it is subject to the Rafer Johnson Jr. High School Late work Policy.

Highest score possible on assignments turned in late = 75% of original points possible

- Cut-off day for accepting late work = Monday (Tuesday, if Monday is a holiday)
- Assignments turned in after cut-off date = 0% (no credit)
- Teachers may require students to attend Homework Intervention during break, lunch, or after school
- When students are required to stay after school, parents will be notified in advance by phone or in writing
- Students who do not show up for Homework Intervention will receive an office referral and the late assignment will receive 0% (no credit)

Please sign this after reviewing it with your student and have them bring it back the next day. Thank you and feel free to contact me with any questions.
